

Beyond Collaboration and Resistance: Everyday Life in Occupied Poland

11-12 March 2021 / Zoom Registration: martin.borkowski-saruhan@uni-goettingen.de

Chair for East European History at the University of Göttingen in cooperation with the German Historical Institute Warsaw

11 March 2021

14:30-14:40 Introductory Remarks

14:40-16:00 Panel 1 | Chair: Ruth Leiserowitz (Warsaw)

Friedrich Cain (Vienna): Two Lives as If. On Sociologies of the Underground and Everyday Life in Occupied Poland (1939-1945)

Martin Wiesche (Munich): Acting with and without agency. The Everyday Life of Dr.
Michał Weichert

16:00-16:20 Break

16:20-17:40 Panel 2 | Chair: Jan Hassink (Göttingen)

Justyna Majewska (Warsaw): We want to see not slaves but free working people.
Debates about Wartime Agricultural Camps in the Underground Press of the Warsaw Ghetto

Martin Borkowski-Saruhan (Göttingen): Exploring a Photo Album from a Nazi Youth Organization Sports Festival in Occupied East Upper Silesia: on Gender, Race and Everyday Life

11 March 2021 | 18.00-19.00 | Public Keynote
Lecture (in Polish with translation into English)

Jerzy Kochanowski (Warsaw)

Życie codzienne w okupowanej Polsce.
Kilka pomysłów na (nieco) inne
spojrzenie
Everyday Life in Occupied Poland.
Some Ideas for a (Slightly) Different Perspective

12 March 2021

9.30-10.50 Panel 3 | Chair: Anke Hilbrenner (Göttingen)

Judith Vöcker (Leicester): Crime and Criminal Prosecution as a Part of Everyday Life in Jewish ghettos

Elena Lopatina (Moscow): Pictures of Everyday Life on the Polish Territories
Occupied by the Red Army (January 1944- December 1945)

10.50-11.10 Break

11.10-12.30 Panel 4 | Chair: André Gounot (Strasbourg)

Maria Frolova (St. Petersburg): Wieszczy: Everyday Life in Andrzej Wajda's Films
Ramona Bechtauf (Göttingen): Collective Memory and Beyond: Transnational and Digital Approaches to Memory Culture in Polish Museums

12.30-12.45 Break

12.45-13.15 Closing Discussion

Summarizing Commentary: Kerstin Bischl, Anke Hilbrenner (Göttingen)