

Monologue

Take turns to talk about one of the following topics for one or two minutes without preparing notes beforehand. Your partner will time you using a stopwatch. The quality of the content is not important as long as you stick to the topic. What's more important is that you speak for as long as possible without pausing :)

Violence in video games

A childhood in the city versus a childhood in the countryside

Today's youth

Euthanasia

Man against machine

Feminism

The power of mass media

Motivation and discipline

Gender roles

Depression/Burn-out

Growing up

The future of humanity
