France

France is famous for its world-renowned gastronomy, rich culture and beautiful countryside. The capital city of Paris has one of the most diverse art and culture scenes. As for French gastronomy, a warm, crispy baguette from the corner boulangerie and the world-famous beef bourguignon are not to be missed. When it comes to sweet delicacies, tuck into a Paris-Brest or go for the classic macaron. Revel in everything France has to offer: wandering the picturesque streets, discovering breath-taking monuments and losing yourself in the natural beauty of this charming country.

STUDY at Paris-Saclay

- Possible types of exchanges:
Erasmus+ exchange (1 or 2 semesters)
- Classes at the partner university are open to all students L2 to M2

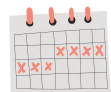

"To embark on a semester abroad does not simply mean choosing to study in a foreign country--it is deciding to set out on a new adventure. One where I will gain new knowledge in the field of law and also new language skills. But it is also one where I will discover more about myself and become more self aware."

Colombe, L2
