

Admissible examination languages depending on the chosen research area

(Extract: Annex I.3 of the Doctoral Degree Regulations)

Regarding the exam language of the structured doctoral courses of study and the individual doctorate: As a rule the exam language is German or English. The examination may also be conducted in a language approved for the research area according to appendix I of the Doctoral Degree Regulations. This applies also to oral examinations in courses of study as long as they are conducted in the field of the same research area.

In addition to German and English, the examination languages listed below are permitted in the following research areas:

a) French:

Didactics of the French Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (French Linguistics)
Didactics of the Italian Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Literature Studies)
Didactics of the Spanish Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Linguistics)
Classical Archaeology (only written examination)	Romanic Philology (Italian Literature Studies)
Romanic Philology (French Literature Studies)	Romanic Philology (Italian Linguistics)
	Romanic Philology (Romanic Literature Studies)
	Romanic Philology (Romanic Linguistics)

b) Italian:

Didactics of the French Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Literature Studies)
Didactics of the Italian Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Linguistics)
Didactics of the Spanish Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Italian Literature Studies)
Classical Archaeology (only written examination)	Romanic Philology (Italian Linguistics)
Romanic Philology (French Literature Studies)	Romanic Philology (Romanic Literature Studies)
Romanic Philology (French Linguistics)	Romanic Philology (Romanic Linguistics)

c) Portuguese:

Didactics of the French Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Linguistics)
Didactics of the Italian Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Italian Literature Studies)
Didactics of the Spanish Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Italian Linguistics)
Romanic Philology (French Literature Studies)	Romanic Philology (Romanic Literature Studies)
Romanic Philology (French Linguistics)	Romanic Philology (Romanic Linguistics)
Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Literature Studies)

d) Spanish:

Didactics of the French Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Literature Studies)
Didactics of the Italian Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Ibero-Romanic Linguistics)
Didactics of the Spanish Language and Literature	Romanic Philology (Italian Literature Studies)
Linguistic Anthropology and Indigenous American Studies	Romanic Philology (Italian Linguistics)
Romanic Philology (French Literature Studies)	Romanic Philology (Romanic Literature Studies)
Romanic Philology (French Linguistics)	Romanic Philology (Romanic Linguistics)