

THURSDAY, JULY 20

10:15-10:45 INTRODUCTION

10:45-11:45 Adam KATWAN

The Suspension of Reason: Reflective Singularity and the Question of the Common Root in Kant's Critique of the Power of Judgment

11:45-13:30 LUNCH

13:30-14:30 Emily SHEIN

Rethinking our Ignorance of Things in Themselves: the Dynamical Antinomies' Answer to the Two-World/Dual Aspect Debate

14:45-15:45 Marco SEIKEL

Pure Thinking and its Relation to Reality: Hegel on Concept and Reality

15:45-16:15 BREAK

16:15-17:15 Gary REICHL

Rethinking Hegel's Theory of Punishment in the Philosophy of Right

17:30-18:30 Paskalina BOURBON

Inferences and Not Causal Phenomena

FRIDAY, JULY 21

09:30-10:30 Roman KIRK

Wittgenstein and the Warenfetisch — Affinities Between Wittgenstein's Notion of Practice and Marx' Theory of Commodity Fetishism

10:45-11:45 Julian BRAUNWARTH

Wittgenstein's Beetle as Reductio ad Absurdum of "Augustine's Conception of Language" and an Erroneous Philosophical Pathway

11:45-13:30 LUNCH

13:30-14:30 Jack FANTINI

Meaning, Quotation, Voice — an Investigation

14:45-15:45 Greg BROWN

Anscombe on Reason and Desire

15:45-16:15 BREAK

16:15-17:15 David HAUNSCHMID

On the Paradox of the Law

17:30-18:30 Lisa BURGER

The Conception Theory: Principles for allocating Remedial Responsibility in Complex Cases

SATURDAY, JULY 22

09:30-10:30 Robert REIMER

Casually Complex Actions and Extended Cognition: A Plea for an Identification

10:45-11:45 Jacob McDOWELL

Externalism without Essentialism: Hilary Putnam on Natural Kind Terms

11:45-12:00 BREAK

12:00-13:00 Katharina SCHULZ

What's the Point of "the Western Canon"?

GÖTTINGEN
CHICAGO

GRADUATE
CONFERENCE

2023